MoCo Arts Welcomes Ely Thayer to Board of Directors

(Keene, NH) – MoCo Arts is pleased to welcome Ely Thayer to its board of directors. Thayer is a Financial Advisor with Edward Jones in Keene by way of St. Louis, MO where he was born and raised. A graduate of Southeast Missouri State University, Thayer moved to Keene in 2016 where he quickly immersed himself in the community becoming involved with the Greater Keene Roteract Club and the Monadnock Wolfpack Rugby Club.

“I am excited to be working with MoCo Arts because of its wonderful reputation and services provided for the youth in the Cheshire County area,” says Thayer. “I grew up involved with a performance arts center, and the experience of performing and being collaborative with a group of peers provided unparalleled growth experiences. I am eager to volunteer time to keep MoCo’s high-quality programming thriving. I am very excited to join the Board of Directors at such an exciting time in the organizations history!”

“Ely brings an abundance of youthful energy to the board and operates his own local financial business right here in downtown Keene”, says Mike Blair, President of the MoCo Arts Board of Directors. “We look forward to having him bring an exciting new perspective to our already diverse board.”
