Frankenstein Meets the Tooth Fairy in Frank N' Fairy at MoCo Arts

(Keene, NH) – What happens when Frankie Frankenstein and Sparkle Tooth Fairy become friends? Find out in Frank N' Fairy performed by MoCo Arts Storytime Theatre on Sunday, January 14 at 2:00 & 4:00pm at the MoCo Arts Black Box Theatre.

The Frankenstein family lives a messy, mucky monster life. The Tooth Fairy family has a fancy, frilly, picture-perfect home. When little Frankie Jr. invites his fairy friend for a play date, some silly things start happening.

Frank N' Fairy is performed by MoCo Arts students 4 yrs – 2nd grade, and was specifically written for Storytime Theatre. This family show blends singing, dancing, acting and concepts of respect and kindness.

“Children have been rehearsing once a week since September to get ready for this fun performance,” says Danielle Fitzpatrick, Artistic Director of Young Arts at MoCo Arts. “They learn dialogue, songs, and dances to get ready for the performance while also learning teamwork, perseverance, and communication skills.”

Storytime Theatre is MoCo's musical theatre class for children ages 4 years through 2nd grade. Students learn lines, cues and stage direction then perform a fully produced musical at the end of each semester. Registration is currently open for the spring semester of Storytime Theatre performing an original musical, A Year With Frog & Toad in June. Please call MoCo Arts at 603-357-2100 for more information.
