

You don't need to be an artist

Bill Gnade / Sentinel Staff | Posted: Tuesday, April 28, 2015 12:00 pm

Photos by Bill Gnade / Sentinel Staff

Volunteers from C&S Wholesale Grocers, wearing blue T-shirts, show up at MoCo Arts Sunday to perform numerous chores, including installing a new split-rail fence, re-seeding the lawn, renovating the bathrooms, and painting. Above, Lauren Lacey of Keene paints inside a stairwell. At right, Nicholas Busch-Halfspring, 14, of Keene removes the drain plug from a water-filled lawn roller at the end of the day.