MoCo Arts Elementary School Play, A Mother Goose Comedy puts a new spin on your favorite nursery rhymes

KEENE, NH – MoCo Arts Elementary School Play, A Mother Goose Comedy, will be taking place in The Founder's Theatre at MoCo Arts on Sunday, March 31st, with performances at 1pm and 4pm. This light-hearted, family-friendly show features the world-famous, fun-loving Mother Goose, who is now retired and living in Mother Goose Resort Spa, where she has time to keep active and pursue her favorite hobbies. She's really into sports and fitness! She gets tweets and texts, and even letters, from children all over the world who want to know how she got the ideas for her nursery rhymes. Assisted by the stage manager, her gander Sydney, she uses comedy sketches and audience participation to show how all of her nursery rhymes and characters came about.

MoCo's Elementary School Play, A Mother Goose Comedy features a relatively small cast, with each cast member taking on multiple roles. But don't let that fool you. Because the cast is so small, every student in the play will really have an opportunity to shine. "These students have been working very hard on this hilarious show that audience members of all ages will enjoy," says Shannon Martin, Director of MoCo's Elementary School Play. "Audience participation is highly encouraged, so brush up on your Mother Goose rhymes!"

MoCo Arts Elementary School Play, A Mother Goose Comedy will be performed by MoCo Arts students in 2nd- 5th grade. Tickets are $10 for general admission, and are available now at MoCo Arts, 40 Roxbury Street in Keene, or by calling (603) 357-2100. For more information about the theatre program at MoCo Arts, and to see their spring performance schedule, visit them online at www.moco.org.
